BANKING BILL GIVES HAWAII UNIQUE HELP

At Eleventh Hour, Change in Law Made to Safeguard the Rights of Territorial Institutions—Mission of L. T. Peck to Washington Meets Notable Success

BANKING BILL.
Hawaii's national banks need not worry about the new currency law. L. T. Peck, cashier of the First National Bank, was strikingly successful on his recent visit to Washington in securing a change in the bill, according to definite information reaching Honolulu today.

The Star-Bulletin's Washington correspondent, C. S. Albert, sends to this paper the following:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 25.—The national banks of Hawaii were given a most advantageous position under the new currency act. They are better situated than any other institutions in the country. They may retain their present system or enter the new regional reserve organization. If the latter, they may select any division preferred.

The clause taking care of Hawaii was inserted at the eleventh hour. The matter had been permitted to go by default until the last minute. Promises had been made by Senators Owen, Reed, Pomeroy and other members of the banking and currency commission that the omission would be rectified before the measure went to the president. This was done but there was no time to spare.

The paragraph of the new law relating to Hawaii reads:
"National banks located in Alaska or outside the continental United States may remain nonmember banks, and shall in that event maintain reserves and comply with all the conditions now provided by law regulating them; or said banks, except in the Philippine Islands, may, with the consent of the reserve board, become member banks of any one of the reserve districts, and shall, in that event, take stock, maintain re-

FARRINGTON IS RE-ELECTED TO LEAD AD CLUB

First vice president—George B. Curtis.
Second vice president—J. D. Levenson.
Secretary—H. L. Strange.
Treasurer—Charles R. Frazier.
Executive committee—T. Sharp, S. S. Paxson, C. G. Heiser, C. G. Bockus, Henry Giles.

The "Ad Club Spirit" overflowed the festive board at which a banner crowd of Ad Club members lunched today. Every live wire present flashed the spark of spontaneity, and ringing cheers for everybody and every project mentioned at the table made the meeting distinctive even in Ad Club annals. Governor Pinkham made his initial appearance as an honorary member of the club, giving a short talk that reflected his sympathy with the good work being done by the club, and assured the loyal support of his administration toward the building of a Greater Hawaii.

The election of officers was the big business of the meeting, and the ballot resulted in the re-election of Wallace R. Farrington by acclamation. According to the by-laws of the club there must be two candidates for every office, but before the members put pencil to paper William Thompson, whose name appeared as the other aspirant for leadership, took the floor and announced that it was only to some within the letter of the law that he had been "made the

And we'll endure forever,

To unite our Hawaii ne!
—Ad Club Sales Committee Anthem.

"Keep smiling and keep moving!"
This is the slogan which has been adopted by the sales force of the Honolulu Ad Club which will tomorrow have charge of the whirlwind campaign for the selling of stock in the great community corporation to be known as the Mid-Pacific Carnival, Limited. More than 150 of Honolulu's and Hawaii's busiest business men, all members of the Ad Club, for 12 hours will forget their duties in store and office, and turn out in the endeavor to assure the success of what is perhaps the biggest project ever undertaken in these islands.

The arrangements have been completed. Selling teams to the number of 24, each composed of a leader and three business men, are ready for work. A large number of ladies have been enlisted in the undertaking and Mrs. Charles Crane has been appointed to act as their leader. The final rally will be held in the Ad Club's rooms, fourth floor, Young hotel building, promptly at 7:30 o'clock this evening, at which time all workers are requested to be present. Booster addresses will be made and those interested will receive their final instructions.

Harry L. Strange, secretary of the Ad Club committee, this morning received the information that the Chinese community will give its support to the campaign through the medium of five selling teams of four men each. Those Chinese who have been enlisted in the work are Wong Chee, Lau Tang, Lee Ong, Chu G'm, Wong Chow, Ching Shai, Wong Leong, Young Kong Tat, C. K. Ai, Lum Yip Kee, Goo Kim Fook, Chuck Hoy, Yee Yap, Willie Kwai Fong Yap, Lum Kum Cheam, Hong Quong, C. Q. Yee Hop, L. Ahoy and L. Chong.

Mrs. Crane this morning completed her corps of assistants, and these ladies have been assigned to the various hotels throughout the city where they will endeavor to sell stock to every person not tagged. The ladies' team consists of Mrs. Harry E. Webster, Granville and Vida Villa; Miss Lucy Dimond, Pleasanton; Miss Miriam Stacker, Courtland and Donna; Mrs. J. W. Thompson, Seaside; Mrs. C. G. Murasky, Mrs. W. H. Stroud and Mrs. Smith, Waikiki Inn; Mrs. Edward Dekum, Colonial; Mrs. G. B. Curtis, Young Hotel; Mrs. Otto Berndt, Macdonald; and Mrs. Charles Raven, Young Cafe. Miss Penella Miles and Mrs. P. Burns will be stationed at Fort and King streets to sell stock to those not tagged. The Japanese Merchants' Association has become interested in the campaign, and it is expected that something will be done before this evening toward organizing a number of teams.

But the stock-selling campaign tomorrow will not be limited only to Honolulu and suburbs, for energetic members of the Ad Club who are residents of the other islands have taken the matter in hand for their respective communities and Maui, Hawaii and Kauai will be asked to do their part toward helping put the carnival on a self-supporting basis. The progress of the islands campaign will be wirelessly to Honolulu each hour and duly posted on the bulletin board at the committee's headquarters on Bishop street, opposite the Young Hotel. The headquarters, by the way, will be elaborately fitted up as a pirates' lair, while armed and bewhiskered rovers of the briny will be on hand to guard the "treasure" and dole out information. An indicator in the form of a target will be used to keep the public informed as to the progress of the Honolulu campaign, while in the window of May & Co. a similar device will be in operation. Bulletins from the selling teams will be received at both places each hour.

Every resident of Honolulu will be urged to purchase at least one share of stock in the corporation. "If the people of Honolulu and Hawaii will respond with a fraction of the enthusiasm shown by the Ad Club, the sale of stock will be a tremendous success," said a prominent business man this morning. An effort will be made by the stock sellers to have each person buy at least $10 worth of stock, or 10 shares. Of this amount, but 10 per cent needs be paid down, the rest subject to assessment of not more than one-half the total in any one year.

So the arrangements for the stock-selling campaign are complete. The leaders and the members of their teams will start from the Bishop street headquarters at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the campaign will come to a close at 6 o'clock, following which they will adjourn to the Young Hotel for dinner. "Keep smiling and keep moving" is the slogan of the sales committee; "Keep smiling and respond" should be the slogan of every loyal resident of the islands.

WHY YOU SHOULD BUY "MID-PACIFIC CARNIVAL, LTD." STOCK

The object of the Carnival is to attract more tourists to Hawaii.

More tourists mean more money in circulation.

More money in circulation means more business for every merchant.

More business means more prosperity and more positions and jobs.

More positions and jobs means more demand for help.

More demand for help means high salaries and wages.

So absolutely every one in Hawaii is benefited by tourists coming here. Think—The tourists leave each year in Los Angeles 150 million dollars. Hawaii has still greater attractions and can expect the same results if we go after them.

The corporation idea puts the Carnival on a business basis.

MEDEROS INSISTED MRS. WELSH AIDED IN HIS LEAVING, SAYS ROSE

Deputy Sheriff States That Dying Man Made Confession Implicating Woman

"The money to pay my passage from Honolulu to San Francisco was given me by Mrs. William Welsh," was a dying statement by Joseph J. Medeiros wanted on an indictment for embezzlement, made in the presence of Deputy Sheriff Charles H. Rose, who visited the coast for the purpose of bringing Medeiros to this city to stand trial.

Medeiros passed from the custody of all earthly restraint on Christmas morning when he died as a result of several days illness, following an acute attack of rheumatism. His death occurred at San Francisco, at which place he was buried.

"Medeiros was apparently delirious at the time that I visited him at a San Francisco hospital," said Deputy Sheriff Rose, who returned from the coast in the Oceanic liner Sierra this morning.

"I called to see him on the Saturday afternoon before Christmas. Medeiros readily recognized me, and said that he desired to make a statement. He was in much pain and we exchanged but few words, when he was obliged to desist from talking.

"He was emphatic in his declaration that the money which paid his passage to the coast came from Mrs. Welsh," said the deputy. "He added that the amount was $50, when interrogated further regarding the matter."

A search of Medeiros' effects failed to reveal papers of importance bearing upon the case of Mrs. Welsh who recently faced a charge of perjury in the district court. Much of the data concerning payments alleged to have been made by Medeiros to the woman, was turned over to the authorities here at the time of the hearing and now is in the custody of the sheriff.

Deputy Rose remained on the coast for a month. He stated that he did not leave the state of California. While there he visited Sacramento, where extradition papers were prepared and turned over to the Honolulu official. Medeiros' illness is said to have dated about the time of the deputy's arrival at San Francisco.

"He was a pretty sick man at the time he was turned over to me by the San Francisco police," states Rose. The deputy sheriff resumed his duties at the central police station this morning.
